“In the lives of Christians, the emphasis of the NT is not on the influence of demons but on the sin that remains in the believers life. Nevertheless, we should recognize that sinning does give a foothold for some kind of demonic influence in our lives. Thus Paul could say, Be angry but do not sin; do not let the sun go down on your anger, and give no opportunity to the devil (Eph 4:26). If we have areas of continuing sin in our lives, then there are weaknesses and holes in our ‘breastplate of righteousness’, and these are areas in which we are vulnerable.”
