

Life Group Study Notes

November 10, 2024

THIS WEEK'S MESSAGE

Generous Space

Psalm 112

Making space for generosity not only helps others but grows our capacity for compassion and selflessness. It fuels gratitude, kindness, abundance, and personal transformation.

Study – Discovering What the Bible Says

1. What was one key takeaway for you from last week's study? (Hint: It was on unity and maturity).
2. What has been your relationship to generosity and your faith in Jesus? Has it been a healthy relationship or an unhealthy one?
3. When it comes to the topic of finances and stewardship, do you feel the church (overall in North America) has done a good job at representing the biblical perspective? Why or why not?

Read Psalm 112, 1 Timothy 6:9-10, and Hebrews 13:5

4. Psalm 112 lists the many blessings that believers receive. Take time to list them and note how many times generosity is mentioned. Also, verse 10 concludes with a contrast of the wicked. How are the wicked portrayed and why?

5. Based on this passage, complete the points given and discuss them.

Biblical generosity is expressed through open _____ and open _____.

Generosity is an expression of _____.

6. How relevant are the words of 1 Timothy 6:9-10 to our present culture? What were presented as the 3 roadblocks to generosity? Take time to discuss each.
 - a. Misplaced _____.
 - b. _____.
 - c. _____.
7. How does Hebrews 13:5 serve as a summary of this study?
8. Is there anything additional that you would like to add or discuss?

Homework

How can I make space for generosity in my life that reflects the heart of God?

Coming Next Week

Unfailing Space

Psalm 36:5-9

For every space needed to create a vibrant spiritual life, this is the one ingredient that holds it all together. Without it, we lack any hope of becoming Christlike
