

Making it Personal

1. What is your greatest challenge when it comes to loving others?
2. Have you ever struggled between moments of being truthful and moments of being loving? How have you managed the tension between the two?
3. What changes do you believe you need to make in response to this study, both personally and in your relationship with others?

Coming Next Week – I Love You, But...Part 3

Is love a path to prison or to freedom?
Love is often a reflection of our personal experience and nothing scares us more than the demands that love can place on us.

Message entitled: Alter or Altar?
Passages: Ephesians 5:21-33

You can access more messages on our sermon page at www.villagegreenchurch.com

We're also on Facebook, Instagram and iTunes.
You can also check out the Pastor's Corner on our website.

Life Group Study Notes

This Week's Message – April 15, 2018

Is love purely a human response to biological impulses or is there something more?

Study – Discovering What the Bible Says

1. What was the major takeaway from last week's study? Why?
2. What are the 3 Pillars of love? Of the 3, which one do you believe is the most difficult one to maintain over a long period of time?

Read 2 John 1:1-13

3. Discuss the importance of truth as it is presented in this letter, especially as it relates to the topic of love?
4. What are the commands alluded to in this passage? What does it tell us about the fact that John's readers naturally assume the commands?

5. What was given as a biblical definition of love? Do you agree? Why or why not?
6. In the message, 5 "In-Tension" questions were presented. What are they and discuss each?
 - 1.
 - 2.
 - 3.
 - 4.
 - 5.
7. Is there any other comments or lessons from the message you would like to discuss?