

Making it Personal

1. Have you ever been impacted by a worldly evil before? What was it?
2. As a believer, is it ok to allow evil to reign victorious in your life? How would this affect your personal relationship with Jesus?
3. What is one way your life group can hold you accountable to continue to grow your faith?

Coming Next Week – Faith Greater Than – Part 4

Deep inside us all is the desire to be loved, accepted, and to feel that our life has meaning. We fight for significance through our accomplishments and successes, even though the emptiness still returns. In this message we look at the power of faith to lift us above anything we may throw at it.

Life Group Study Notes

This Week's Message – November 11, 2018

We rarely hear the word used no matter how heinous the crime. It has been eradicated from our vocabulary, even though its effects are felt all around us and few of us feel truly safe anymore. In this message, we look at the power of faith against the advance of evil.
