

Making it Personal

1. What spiritual legacy are you leaving behind?
2. What part of Elijah's story do you resonate the most with? Does knowing his story help you and give you hope in your own walk with God?
3. As a final thought, this is more a reminder than a question. Whatever fear or difficulty is consuming your life, God will be there to help you rise above it. God is always there, and God will always be enough for you. He was in Elijah's life and he can be in yours too!

Coming Next Week

Don't miss our "State of the Church Address" next Sunday with special guest, Board Chair Al Vanderlaan.

As a reminder, the next session of Life Groups begins on April 11th with a new series, Things God Uses.

Life Group Study Notes

Series Summary – Elijah: Faith for Turbulent Times (5 Part Series)

A nation in upheaval, a godless king, a devastating drought, and epic opposition. That is the backdrop for a prophet named Elijah who overcame it all. When the world around us is spinning out of control, where do we turn?

This Week's Message – Pass It On

For all that Elijah accomplished, nothing strengthened his legacy more than the passing on of his gift to a new prophet, one who would hold the torch that Elijah so faithfully carried.

Study – Discovering What the Bible Says

1. What was one takeaway from last week's study? (Hint: It was on Elijah from 1 Kings 19:1-14).
2. Have you ever felt like quitting or at the very least, selling everything and living as a recluse, away from the craziness and insanity of the world around us?
 - a. Have you ever doubted if good is making any difference at all?
 - b. What kinds of things get you down the most?

Read 1 Kings 19:15-21

3. In the opening 4 verses (15-18), there were 3 points given in the message. How do these points help to lift Elijah out of his depressed state?
 - a. God give us _____.
 - b. God replaces our _____.
 - c. God reminds us that _____.
4. Verses 19-21 describe the calling of Elisha. How would you answer the following?
 - a. What do we learn about Elisha from the description given here?
 - b. How do we know that Elisha had no doubt what was being asked of him by Elijah?
 - c. What summary statement was given in the message?
 - God gives us a _____.
5. Why is Elisha an important part of Elijah's story and what does it teach us for today's Christian culture?
6. Are there any other comments or lessons from the message or subject you would like to discuss?
